13. Mr Surgeon Sanitary Commr is a Head of a Deptt and when need of a local office, as in the case of several other Deptts, his pay may be fixed at Rs 1400/-. As Mr Byrnes was placed & placed under when Mr Bourne was asked for the Commandant that for the purpose of calculating allowances the pay of the C.C. may be fixed when fixed at Rs 1400/-. In fact it is now practically somewhat as it was that the Head of a Deptt gets Rs 1400/- & not something more under & upon orders. His pay may therefore now be fixed at 1400/- and pay allowances calculated on it. Mr Ahuja has got the local allowance of 500 for 900 + 500 or 1400/- which he will now get also if he is appointed to this post.

matter are so few that I think we may arrive at a resolution which may be submitted for H. H's acceptance without further delay.

Mr Achyuta Rao has been appointed Offg Senior Surgeon, and it is now premature to say whether he will be confirmed or even whether the vacancy is permanent. On 2 previous occasions when he officiated he drew a salary of Rs 900+500=1400, which also happens to be not our standard of emoluments for the Head of a Dept in the Mysore State and is intrinsically not too much for the combined duties of Senior Surgeon, Sanl Commr & I.G. of Prisons. I would therefore suggest that Rs 1400 be fixed as the salary of the appointment & that Mr Achyuta Rao be considered as substantive & allowed to draw this amount.

If a local officer is to be appointed Senior Surgeon & Sanitary Commr the pay of the appointt may be fixed at the same figure viz Rs 1000 $\frac{50}{1}$ - 1200.

The pay of Rs 1200 is that of a 1st class Deputy Commr and a District Judge. and might be sufficient for a local officer

Submitted to His Highness.

35. These papers relate to the emoluments to be given to Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao as Officiating Senior Surgeon. His permanent pay as Superintendent, Central Jail, is Rs.700 plus a personal allowance of Rs.200. On the (two or possibly three) previous occasions on which he acted as Senior Surgeon he drew, in addition to the aforesaid sum of Rs.900, the local allowance of Rs.500 attached to the appointment and not drawn by Col. Smyth while absent. Dr. Achyuta Rao's emoluments while officiating as Senior Surgeon in the past thus amounted to Rs.1,400.

A & R

2. Now that Col. Smyth has reverted to the British Service, and the appointment is supposed to have fallen substantively vacant, the First Councillor is of opinion that the pay of the appointment should be fixed at Rs.1000-50-1200, when it is held by a local officer, and that no local allowance need be given. The Financial Secretary's view is the same (vide his note dated 4th July 1911).

3. I have recorded my opinion in my note dated (12

5th August 1911. I think that the pay of the appointment may be fixed at Rs.1,400, which is our standard rate of pay for the Head of a Department of the first order, and that Dr. Achyuta Rao may be regarded as holding this appointment sub-pro-tem and allowed to draw Rs.1,400, which is what he got when he officiated on previous occasions.

4. I submit the file for orders, with the minutes recorded by the Councillors. The First Councillor continues to be of the opinion that the pay of the appointment may now be fixed at Rs.1000-50-1200. The Second Councillor is of opinion that if the arrangement is to be, or is likely to be, permanent Rs.1000-50-1200 would be a fair rate of pay, and that if it is only temporary it would be fair to give Dr. Achyuta Rao Rs.1,400 as on previous occasions. The following are some subsisting scales of pay:-

Revenue Commissioner	-	Rs.1,400.
Excise Commissioner	-	" 1,400.
Inspector General of Police	-	" 1,400.
Conservator	-	" 1,200 (maximum)
Survey Superintendent	-	" 1,200 (maximum)
Inspector General of Education- (Mr. Weir)		" 1,200. +200 personal allowance allowance.

+100 House rent.

Comptroller	-	Rs.800 - 1000 (local).
Chief Engineer	-	" 1,400 (local).
Economic Botanist	-	" 1,100 (maximum pay) including Palace contribution.
